CRAZY PAVING

IDEAL FOR COMMERCIAL & RESIDENTIAL USE

CRAZY PAVING

Crazy paving is irregular shaped stone pavers used in outdoors in both commercial and residential settings. Crazy paving comes in all different types of stone, most popular being bluestone, granite and travertine.

Crazy paving comes in both split faced and honed finishes depending on the stone. Crazy paving is ideal to use in outdoor areas with a lot of curves, thanks to the irregular shaped pieces that can be worked around most surfaces.

Crazy Paving can also be used in patios, around gardens, pools and for most landscaping purposes. The variation in the stone pieces adds to the organic nature of the paving, making it a unique feature in your home.
