Limestone tiles have a classic yet contemporary look with its neutral ashy tones and distinct movement. Our range of Stone can be used for flooring and walls, in kitchens, bathrooms and external applications. The tiles will provide a natural finish and will complement almost any architectural use you require. Buy Limestone tiles and pavers from Sydney Tile Gallery by visiting our showroom or via email and telephone.

Limestone has a distinct soft look and feels that it will make your space feel natural and calm. The subtle movement and grains in Limestone make it very easy to style and will suit almost any architectural and interior style. Once the tiles are sealed, it requires very minimal maintenance and is very durable against scratches and stains.

At Sydney Tile Gallery, we have both Limestone Tiles and Wall cladding to suit any application, for both indoor and outdoor use. Using Limestone in any form will give your home a contemporary yet classic feel with its neutral tones and natural variation. Prices are subject to GST.
